▾ Bridging students and the professional world

The European School of Law (ESL) proudly presents the ESL Legal Lab an innovative platform where Master's students deliver legal advice in a supervised, professional setting.

How does it work?

- Expert supervision :

Each student team is guided by a university tutor and a professional mentor from an institutional or private partner.

- Real-world cases :

Students address current legal issues or practical cases with an international, European, or comparative law focus.

- Professional standards :

All consultations are free, copyright-free, and strictly confidential.

Why partner with us?

- Corporate Social Responsibility :

This initiative reflects our commitment to impactful research and education, with a strong focus on CSR.

- Talent pipeline :

Collaborate with motivated, internationally-minded students from our English-taught Master's programs: International Economic Law (IEL) and Cross-border Disputes (CbD).

- Fresh insights :

Gain innovative solutions and diverse perspectives on your legal challenges.

Testimonial

« This experience was very enriching. I enjoyed interacting with the students, which allowed me to compare my established perspective with a fresh, open-minded outlook. It brought me new insights, encouraged me to revisit the theory, and stimulated my thinking thanks to the high quality of our discussions. »

— Claire Dumontelle, Legal Director et Compliance Officer at Telespazio
