FRENCH-IRISH ENCOUNTER

The ESL management team travelled to Paris to meet Niall Burgess, the Irish Ambassador to France.

It was an opportunity to reaffirm our close links with Ireland and to look at new collaborations, in addition to our double degrees with University College Dublin and the University of Galway.

SCHOOL LIFE

Our first-year students in the Franco-Spanish double degree programme visited the Musée du Vieux Toulouse, accompanied by their course leader, Didier Blanc.

FEBRUARY UNDER THE IRISH SIGN

The month of February ended as it began for our management team, as Zoé Jacquemin, Director of the ESL, and Charlotte Rault, Deputy Director of the ESL, visited Dublin and Galway.

Laurent Pech, Dean of UCD and Zoé Jacquemin, Director of the ESL.

On 19 February, a new Master's/LL.M. partnership was established in Dublin, bringing together the Master of International and Comparative Law (MADIC) from Toulouse Capitole University and the LL.M. from University College Dublin. After the official signature by Dean Laurent Pech and Zoé Jacquemin, the delegation was received at the Irish Embassy in France.

On 20 February, in Galway, a double degree agreement was signed with the University of Galway, giving Toulouse students access to a new mobility scheme in their third year of undergraduate studies. These agreements open up new academic opportunities for students.
