

European School of Law Toulouse and Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

presents the 6th edition PhD Workshops 2022

Stakeholders, what are they, what are their functions?

July 7th 2022

Sala de Juntas - Facultat de Dret de la UAB

Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona

<https://esl.ut-capitole.fr> // esl@ut-capitole.fr

9:30 - Welcome participants

9:45 - Opening

Josep Maria de Dios, Professor of Private International Law, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelone

Lukas Rass-Masson, Director of the European School of Law Toulouse

Julien Théron, Head of research of the European School of Law Toulouse

10:00 - 11:30 - Stakeholders as a mark of a new approach to business?

- Structural coupling and stakeholders. A systemic approach to business

Elena Matias Casacuberta

- Towards a progressive subjugation of business law to stakeholders?

Annaëlle Paulian

- The influence of corporate social responsibility on the relationship between stakeholders and the parent company

Khalil Boustani

11:30 - 11:45 - Break

11:45 - 12:45 - Stakeholders in the rule-making process:
sectoral examples from private law

- Stakeholders influence on improving labour rights in garment supply chains

Alacoque McAlpine

- Stakeholders in EU Copyright reform: Who sets the beats ?

Lidia Ballesta Marti

12:45 - 14:00 : Lunch break

13:55 - Welcome participants

14:00 - 15:00 - Stakeholders in the rule-making process :
sectoral examples from public law.

- Stakeholders and digital State public values

Ana Christina Aguilar Viana

- Analysis of the concept of 'stakeholders' applied to urban data governance under the prism of European law

Evgeniia Volkova

15:00 - 16:00 - Are the animals stakeholders?

- Corporate social responsibility in business: the animal rights perspective

Daniel Navarro Sánchez

- Recognising the animals as stakeholders

Laure Gisie

16:00 - Closing of the PhD Workshops 2022